

Where History Begins

A Workshop for Virginia's Local Historical Societies

Monday, May 3, 2010 | 9:00 AM–5:00 PM
Library of Virginia | Richmond, Virginia

This workshop is made possible by a generous State and National Archival Partnership (SNAP) grant from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission.

Where History Begins will provide an opportunity for networking and cooperation among societies across the commonwealth. Society members, staff, and volunteers are encouraged to register for this exciting day of presentations, discussion, and behind-the-scenes tours of the Library of Virginia.

Speakers will explore a variety of topics, from finding grant opportunities to building support for your society. Come learn about tools for basic preservation and techniques for working with your collections.

A limited number of travel stipends will be available for attendees located more than 150 miles from Richmond.

Partners in the project include the Virginia Association of Museums (VAM), the Henrico County Historical Society, and the Goochland County Historical Society, along with the Library of Virginia Foundation and the Virginia State Historical Records Advisory Board (SHRAB).
